

WHY INVEST IN OVER THE EDGE

Because Kids in Haiti Need Your Help

- ♥ Helping Haitian Angels (HHA) is a growing 501(c)3 non-profit organization started in 2008 in Haymarket, Virginia, to support the complete care of orphaned and abandoned children at the Kay Anj d'Ayiti (Angel House of Haiti) in Dekle, Haiti.
- ♥ Our mission follows the Biblical directive to rescue vulnerable children by providing family-style loving care and sustainable solutions that fight against Haiti's child abandonment crisis.
- ♥ Out of 757 orphanages operating in Haiti, HHA is one of only 35 to be awarded a Green Compliance Rating by the Institut du Bien-Être Social et de Recherches (IBESR), the social services agency of Haiti.
- ♥ Helping Haitian Angels loves, honors, and raises future leaders who will promote a more just society in Haiti through programs that equip Haitians to become the authors of their own development.
- ♥ Your support is critical to maintaining and expanding HHA's impact upon the lives of those most vulnerable. HHA needs YOU!

Because Your Business Benefits

- ◆ Tysons Corner Center is the largest shopping center in the Washington, D.C., metro area with thousands of patrons visiting the Tysons plaza each day for recreation, entertainment, and mall/Metro access.
- ◆ Over The Edge is a premiere event attracting considerable attention over two days from the Tysons Corner Center mall, the Tysons Corner Metro station and the neighboring high rise residential/office buildings which all enjoy use of the Plaza.
- ◆ Through the vast reach of social media, your business will be seen, heard, and recognized by new audiences.
- ◆ Engage prospective new clients through a marketing presence (table provided) on the Plaza, in view of the rappel Landing Zone.
- ◆ Become a Sponsor and allow Over The Edge to help build comradery within your organization either through a corporate rappel when your team takes the ropes together or "Toss the Boss." What better way to achieve your identified metric than through the "sacrifice" of the one in charge all while supporting a great organization.
